

AND THE HEALING WILL COME

The bride of Christ today is found sick and crying for her healing, while binding Satan for his role in her sickness. There is something wrong with this picture, my friends. Allow me to explain to you the reason why I say that, for I found myself doing the same thing until God opened my eyes to understand the beauty of His sovereignty in my life. I understand that He deals with each of us differently, but His Word stands with the same message for all of us. Firstly He showed me that I was chosen before the foundation of the world. With this thought in mind I then started to see that His sovereignty over me has taken me closer to Him through the wilderness, through my pains in the process of sanctification needed to mold me. For this reason also He had chosen me as I read in Romans 8:29: For those whom He foreknew He also destined from the beginning to be molded into the image of His Son... God uses people as in our family- our children, spouse, friends, employer, colleagues and the list goes on and on, including Satan and his demons, to refine and to mold us unto His holiness. In no way shape or form can Satan touch our life, unless God lets him and that with a purpose to bring us to the place where He wants us to be in Christ, reflecting His glory in submission always to His sovereignty in humbleness of heart, repenting and accepting all things in thankfulness to Him that you are His chosen one. You must have faith to believe this truth, even when it will be hard to do so. Then the healing, found in His promise for you, will come. The healing will not come over night, but will take many days and possibly weeks, for it will come as you are submissive to Him, allowing Him to sanctify you through His Word. For that you have to make time to sit still in His presence, willing to hear and learn from His Word. Our sanctification takes a lifetime and the more we submit to Him the more we come to know and understand His truth and then we can walk in the light of the knowledge of Him. Life will not be easier, but it will be peaceful and joyous, and this joy will be complete in your life, as He promised it would be. Jesus prayed, Sanctify them in the Truth (John 17:17); He said, If you live in Me and My Words remain in you and continue to live in your hearts, ask whatever you will, and it shall be done for you (John 15:7). These are promises from the mouth of God Himself to be received by all of us, conditionally upon your and my obedience to His Word.

Think about it !

I am Jacinta for Light from the Word Ministry