

Promises to Live By

The Lord is my Light and my Salvation; whom shall I fear? He is my Refuge and Strength, a helper Who is always found in times of trouble; He knows my sitting down and my standing up; He is aware of all my ways; He has encircled me; His right hand will hold on to me; His eyes saw me when yet formless; all my days were written in His book and planned before a single one of them began. He chose me before the foundation of the world, to be holy and blameless, to be adopted into His family through His Son, YAHSHUA! Nothing in this world and in the world to come will separate me from His love: no affliction, no persecution, and no tribulation, because I am sealed with His HOLY SPIRIT and my name is written in heaven; He is the source of my strength; when I am weak He is strong in me; He stands for me and no more condemnation and accusation stand against me. Through my earthly journey He promised to protect me when I pass through the waters, and the fires. I am precious and worthy in His sight more than the lilies of the field, the birds of the air which he dresses and feeds, for He loves me.

He is my Shepherd; His staff guides and protects me from evil; His rod disciplines and corrects me, bringing me to the path of His fold; He laid down His life for me and gave me life eternal; He knows me by name and I know His voice; He walks on before me so I can follow Him; I am secure in His arms and no one can snatch me from Him. He satisfies my every need; He leads me to the green grass and water where my physical needs are met; He restores my soul and leads me along the paths of righteousness; even in the darkest valley His presence is with me; I fear not the danger of evil around me; His goodness and faithful love will follow me all the days of my life until I awake in eternity, beholding His form and His glory. A place He went to prepare for me in glory, where He dwells; and when it is finished, He is coming to take me to live with Him; in a twinkling of an eye, with the trumpet sounding I will be changed from this corruptible body to the incorruptible He will have for me.

He equipped me with power to trample on serpents, scorpions, and over all the power of the enemy; no weapon formed against me will prosper. His Word is to me a lamp to guide my feet, and a light to shine my way; sharper than a two- edged sword, His Word is my weapon to fight against the enemy. In His secret place He hides me from all evil; He sends His angels to accompany, defend and protect me; He is only a call away with my deliverance; He turned fear out of the door and gave me His perfect love and blessed me with all His spiritual blessings. Thank you YAHWEH!

Think about it!